

Office of Congressman Gerry Connolly
2017 Congressional Art Competition Guidelines

General Guidelines

- The competition is open to all high school students, however only students who are residents of the 11th Congressional District of Virginia may submit entries through my office. Please confirm that you are a resident of the 11th District before submitting an entry to my office. To confirm your Congressional District, feel free to contact my Fairfax and Prince William district offices.
- All artwork, including completed Student Information and Release Form, must be received on or before April 21, 2017. Artwork may be delivered to either of my District offices:

Fairfax District Office
4115 Annandale Road, Suite 103
Annandale, VA 22003
(703) 256-3071

Prince William District Office
2241-D Tackett's Mill Drive
Woodbridge, VA 22192
(571) 408-4407

- All artwork must conform to the following restrictions:
  - All artwork must be finished, dry, and ready-to-hang
    - All pieces must include necessary hooks, wires, or other hardware for hanging.
    - Un-framed art must be cleanly mounted (strongly secured and flat) on a properly sized stiff board (foam core, carton board, paperboard, etc.).
    - Size of frame or boards must not exceed the size limitations and are considered part of the artwork.
  - Artwork must be two dimensional.
  - Each piece can be no larger than 28"x 28"x 4" (28 inches high, 28 inches wide, and 4 inches deep) including the frame.
  - Artwork cannot weigh more than 15 lbs.
  - Each entry must be original in concept, design, and execution and may not violate any U.S. copyright laws. Any entry that has been copied from an existing photo (not the student's own), painting, graphic, advertisement or any other work produced by another person is a violation of the competition rules and will not be accepted.
  - Work entered must be in the original medium (that is, not a scanned reproduction of a painting or drawing).
  - Please attach a label to the back of your artwork with your name, school, and artwork title.
  - Presentation of artwork is important; this is a judged competition and framed artwork will, in many cases, appear more finished and could compete more strongly. Craftsmanship counts.
- Artwork accepted mediums are as follows:
  - Paintings: oil, acrylics, watercolor, etc.
  - Drawings: pastels, colored pencil, pencil, charcoal, ink, markers
  - Collage: must be two dimensional
  - Prints: lithographs, silkscreen, block prints
  - Mixed Media: use of more than two mediums such as pencil, ink, watercolor, etc.
  - Computer-generated art
  - Photography
- Each entry must be accompanied by the 2017 Congressional Student Information and Release Form and the Workhouse Art Center Release Form.

Exhibition and Awards

- All artwork accepted will be publically displayed at The Workhouse Art Center, McGuire Woods Gallery (Building 16), 9601 Ox Road, Lorton, VA from April 29 through May 13, 2017.
- The artist of the 1st place piece as well as other winners for the 11th Congressional District will be announced during a reception to be held in May 2017 at The Workhouse Art Center in Lorton, Virginia.
- The 1st place entry will hang in the United States Capitol for an entire year.
- This piece will be delivered to the Capitol by Congressman Connolly's office and cannot be returned for one year. Students who may need a piece for an exam portfolio or other purposes should consult with Congressman Connolly's Office.
- The final decision regarding the suitability of all artwork for the 2017 Congressional Art Competition exhibition in the Capitol will be made by a panel of qualified persons chaired by The Architect of the Capitol. Artwork must adhere to the policy of the House Office Building Commission. In accordance with this policy, exhibits depicting subjects of contemporary political controversy or a sensationalistic or gruesome nature are not allowed. It is necessary that all artwork be reviewed by the panel chaired by the Architect of the Capitol and any portion not in consonance with the Commission's policy will be omitted from the exhibit.
- The National Art Competition Reception for all Congressional District Winners will take place at the Capitol in Washington, D.C. The exact time and location will be announced at a later date.
- Except for the winning entry, pieces can be retrieved from the Workhouse immediately following the reception or from the office where they were submitted.

Workhouse Art Center Selection: "High School Rising Star"

- The Workhouse will select one artwork to display prominently on its campus. This artwork will be selected by The Workhouse Director of Visual Arts, and will be kept as loaned artwork for approximately one year after the exhibition. Students are encouraged to consider the presentation (e.g. framing) of their artwork for the competition.
- If you do not wish your artwork to be considered for The Workhouse High School Rising Star selection, please indicate your wishes in the Opt-Out section of the Workhouse Art Center Release Form which is included in this packet.

THE WORKHOUSE ART CENTER “HIGH SCHOOL RISING STAR”

The Workhouse is pleased to announce a new feature: the High School Rising Star. One piece of art will be selected by The Workhouse Director of Visual Arts to be displayed prominently on its campus. This artwork will be kept as a loaned artwork for approximately one year after the exhibition. Students are encouraged to consider the presentation (i.e. framing) of their artwork for the competition. This is an extraordinary opportunity for a young artist to have his or her piece displayed in a public art gallery.

OPT OUT:

_____ Please check here if you do not wish your piece to be considered for the High School Rising Star Award.
